Mission Co-op Appeal

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith seeks to inform Catholics of the life and the needs of the Catholic Church in the missions, and to encourage prayer and financial help for those mission churches. Your willingness to participate in the Annual Mission Cooperative is greatly appreciated. Our generous response is a reflection of our ongoing awareness and concern for people in every part of the world.

Next weekend for our Annual Mission Appeal we welcome, Fr. Stephen Banjare, SS.CC., who is a member of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, who is from India and serves now as the pastor of St. Joseph’s Parish in Fairhaven, MA. One of the most recognized members is St. Damien of Molokai. It was through his inspiration that many of our members chose to become missionaries and to work with the forgotten and abandoned around the world.

There are over 1,000 members of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts in 38 countries around the world. Following the inspiration of St. Damien, they live out the Charism of their Congregation to “contemplate, witness and proclaim the mystery of God’s love as symbolized in the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.” Please visit the U.S. Province website at www.sccc.org and the international website www.scccpcpus.com for more information.
