Mission Co-op Appeal Today

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith seeks to inform Catholics of the life and the needs of the Catholic Church in the missions, and to encourage prayer and financial help for those mission churches. Your willingness to participate in the Annual Mission Cooperative is greatly appreciated. Our generous response is a reflection of our ongoing awareness and concern for people in every part of the world.

For today’s Annual Mission Appeal we welcome Sister Laura Canali of the Xaverian Missionary Society of Mary, who will share with us information on the life and work of the Society’s members throughout the world.

The Society is an International Missionary Congregation, founded in Parma, Italy, in 1945 by Rev. Giacomo M. Spagnolo, SX, and the American born, Miss Celestina Bottego. The Xaverian Missionary Sisters live their vocation through their religious consecration by following Jesus Christ in Chastity, Poverty, and Obedience.

They dedicate themselves to the service of God and Humanity. All their activities are undertaken for the purpose of making the good news available to non-Christian people, especially to the ministries of: pastoral catechetical, educational, medical and social as needed in each country.

Currently, the Xaverian Missionary Sisters are working in: Italy, the United States, Mexico, North and South Brazil, the D. R. Congo, Cameroon, Chad, Japan, and Thailand.
